ReEmployAbility Appoints Director of Operations

Tampa, FL (May 31, 2017) – ReEmployAbility, the largest national provider of specialty early Return-to-Work (RTW) services and transitional employment programs, announced a recent addition to the company’s executive team. Sarah McCants was appointed as Director of Operations. She brings over 17 years of experience and expertise in strategic business planning, business process optimization, training and development, and project management.

“We are thrilled to welcome Sarah to the team,” Co-Founder Debra Livingston said. “With her extensive management track record and expertise, we are confident she will be a great asset to the organization. Customer service has always been our key focus. In order to provide the high level of service our clients have come to expect, Sarah will examine our overall operations and identify opportunities for continued improvement so that we can continue to deliver the best value for our services. Sarah’s experience is sure to make a huge difference leading our Transition2Work team.”

As Director of Operations, McCants will be responsible for organizing and overseeing the daily operations of ReEmployAbility’s Transition2Work team. She will ensure service quality by maintaining an emphasis on customer care, quality management, workforce planning, coaching, and training.

Before joining ReEmployAbility, McCants was the Operations Director of HealthPlan Services. She has a distinguished career and a proven record of achieving strategic success, the most notable was her role in the integration of Medco and Express Scripts Standard Operating Procedures.

“I am so excited to join the ReEmployAbility team,” McCants said. “I look forward to applying my corporate experience and knowledge to a smaller atmosphere and being a part of its growth. The culture here is so amazing and you can tell there is a great willingness to work together. That alone can influence a great change that is sure to make an already successful program even better.”

About ReEmployAbility:

Founded in 2003, ReEmployAbility is the largest national provider of specialty early return-to-work (RTW) services and transitional employment programs. Our Transition2Work program offers employers a cost-effective solution to modified light duty assignments, reducing claim costs while giving the injured worker time to heal.
